I am pleased that the Stories of Service initiative and a coalition of other great service groups are working together to spread President-elect Obama's call to action.

Serving your community is not just about doing something good for free; volunteers also stand to gain knowledge about the world and insight about their power to make a difference.

The need for new volunteers, especially to help care for our Veterans, is great and growing – so now is the time to get involved!

Sincerely,

BOB FILNER
